Welcome!

Aren't you freezing? For those of you from really cold places, I know you laugh at people in Hong Kong who say it's cold. But let's be honest... it really has been nippy. (But you look really nice in your sweaters and coats. :))

We just wrapped up a great weekend with the Global Leadership Summit. With a sold-out conference, we were thrilled to be able to present world-class speakers to you that hopefully left you not just inspired, but better equipped. We hope those truths will continue to impact your life.

Continuing our NEW DAY series, today we'll look at four massive paradigm shifts that come as a result of our new relationship with Jesus. I hope you will reflect on these and make great attempts to stop living in old ways and embrace all that is new.
