

Wherever You Go

Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

*² Blessed is the man against whom the LORD counts no
iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.*

*³ For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away
through my groaning all day long.*

*⁴ For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.*

*⁵ I acknowledged my sin to You,
and I did not cover my iniquity;
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.*

*⁶ Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to You at a time when You may be found;
surely in the rush of great waters,
they shall not reach him.*

*⁷ You are a hiding place for me;
You preserve me from trouble;
You surround me with shouts of deliverance.*

Psalm 32:1-7

Wherever You Go

- 1) How would you define the difference between guilt and shame?
- 2) When people are living with guilt and shame, how is it displayed in their lives?
- 3) How has guilt or shame had an impact in your relationship with others? How about in your relationship with God?
- 4) How does the gospel act as the antidote to guilt and shame?
- 5) What role can God's truth about confession, forgiveness and identity as a child of God play in helping us to live as free people?
- 6) Conclude by reading and praying through Psalm 139:1-5, 23-24. Ask God to reveal what extra weight you carry with you on life's journey and entrust Him with it.
