⁵You sweep men away in the sleep of death;
they are like the new grass of the morning—

⁶though in the morning it springs up new, by evening it is dry and withered.

¹⁰The length of our days is seventy years—or eighty, if we have the strength;
yet their span is but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

¹¹Who knows the power of Your anger?
For Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due You.

¹²Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Numbering

My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and they come to an end without hope.
Job 7:6

My days are swifter than a runner; they fly away without a glimpse of joy. Job 9:25

What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.
James 4:14b

Psalms 90 (selected verses)

¹Lord, You have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.

²Before the mountains were born or You brought forth the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting You are God.

³You turn men back to dust, saying "Return to dust, O sons of men."

⁴For a thousand years in Your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.
