

Pivot: Growing in Flexibility

By Brett Hilliard, January 10, 2021

For though I am free from all, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though not being myself under the law) that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that by all means I might save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, that I may share with them in its blessings.

1 Corinthians 9:19-23

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What are the biggest barriers for you in becoming more flexible?
2. How do you determine where to have immovable convictions vs. having flexibility?
