

Welcome!

As a kid, you sang about it. "If you're happy and you know it, clap your hands". And thanks to Pharrell, adults can now sing about it too: "Clap along if you feel like happiness is the truth". (I'm still trying to figure out the "room without a roof" metaphor...)

Who doesn't want more happiness? Most of us would easily say yes to an offer of greater happiness in our lives. And yet, in a recent study of Asian cities, Hong Kong ranked the lowest in happiness.

So how can that be changed? Are we to lower our expectations so that we are more easily fulfilled? Is happiness a culture-bound phenomenon that is valued and nurtured more in certain cultures than others? What does Jesus have to say about being happy?

Today we'll have a look at scripture to understand more fully what it means to have a happy life.

Happiness

<sup>3</sup> Happy are the poor in spirit,

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup> Happy are those who mourn,

For they shall be comforted.

<sup>5</sup> Happy are the meek,

For they shall inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup> Happy are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,

For they shall be filled.

Happy are the merciful,

For they shall obtain mercy.

<sup>8</sup> Happy are the pure in heart,

For they shall see God.

<sup>9</sup>Happy are the peacemakers,

For they shall be called sons of God.

<sup>10</sup> Happy are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
