

Welcome!

“Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which He looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good. Yours are the hands with which He blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are His body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours.”

– Teresa of Avila

My understanding and experience with missions has grown in sync with my faith. As I’ve continued on the road of discipleship, my view of missions has been like a camera pulling back from micro to macro, zooming out from short-term trips to long-term strategy, to seeing how missions is not just something God does to save the world, but is indeed a part of His very nature.

As the quote above says, Christ has no body now but ours and He has given us the precious message of good news to share with the world. Today I hope you’ll see what you can do with what He has entrusted to you.

Entrusted With Much

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

Matthew 28: 19-20

As He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?" And Jesus answered them... "And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."

Matthew 24: 3-4, 14
